 - John will get numbers out to everyone
- Update on Marketing for Virtual Graduate Fairs (Samantha/Matt)
 - John thanked Matt and Samantha for their efforts
- Future Marketing Efforts (Samantha/Matt)
 - Matt mentioned that Samantha has done a great job with this. Direct Development has been a good company to work with. In retrospect, we should have spent more, but what was spent was reasonable.
 - John mentioned that we can build off of this for next year.

New Business (John)

- Scholarship and Registration Raffles (Thoughts/Action)
 - John will compile a list of the attendees for the raffle
 - Matt mentioned that a random number generator has been done in past that seems to have worked well.
 - We can do this now and notify the winners before December. The gifts can be shipped to them.

- TxGAP Leadership Lecture Series
 - John thought about creating a lecture series. Other ideas/topics are welcomed.
 - Topics could be:
 - To GRE or Not To GRE?: Adopting A Holistic Admissions Approach (Presenter: Steve Matson – ETS/GRE Office for Graduate Education Engagement; Former Graduate Dean – UNC)
 - Finding Balance – Tips for Managing Your Mental and Physical Health (Presenter: Dr. Lawrence Taylor, LPC, LCDC)
 - Margaret asked is we give speakers a stipend/honorarium or some type of gift.
 - Matt mentioned that we do have the resources to provide some type of modest honorarium or a nice gift.
 - Victor recommended doing about 4 large speaker series in addition to having members present topics as well.

Financial Report – Herewith (Matt)

- Monthly Update
 - October balance: $26,956.60 with an ending of $38,101.07
 - Profit sharing check from CareerEco for $14,300
 - Debits are for the monthly processing fees, ads and other fees with Direct Development, CPA ($113.75) to go through 2019 financials and file our return
 - We will receive another profit share with CareerEco
- Victor asked if there are other opportunities in the Spring for profit shares
 - John is open to it and will be up for discussion that could include STEM, Arts, Social Sciences fairs.

Committee Chair Reports

- Membership (Alisha)
 - John reported for Alisha: Nothing at this time. She submitted the TxGAP members list to NAGAP and cleaned up lists of people who are no longer members.
- Communications & Marketing (Samantha)
 - John wanted to let Samantha know how much she is appreciated and Thank You.
- Professional Development & Strategic Initiatives (Victor)
 - Victor is looking at ideas and gathering potential speakers. He will be in contact with the mentors for the Mentorship program.
- Summer Institute (Heather)
